Attestation Process

All psychologists registered or practicing in Nova Scotia are expected to possess or demonstrate an understanding of professional practice and ethical issues, and have an understanding of the practice of psychology in NS (public and private system).

As such, prior to registration with the Nova Scotia Board of Examiners in Psychology, applicants are required to attest that they have reviewed the following relevant local jurisprudence, standards, and resources:

- the NSBEP Standards of Professional Conduct;
- the NSBEP Standards for Providers of Psychological Services;
- the Canadian Code of Ethics for Psychologists (Fourth Edition);
- the Psychologists Act, SNS 2000, c 32;
- the Psychologists Regulations, NS Reg 70/2002;
- if practicing via telepsychology, NSBEP Practice Advisory: Model Standards for Telepsychology Service
- and other legislation and guidelines applicable to registrants.

The documents and/or links to the documents listed above are available in the NSBEP's online document entitled "Standards of Practice" - (http://www.nsbep.org/downloads/Binder_Standards_Legislation_Guidelines.pdf)

Upon review of the materials described above, and prior to commencing registration, the applicant is to sign and return the Attestation of Review to the NSBEP (next page).
